TRAGIC SEQUEL.

A tragic sequel to a costly fire that swept away a half block of property, bounded by Eighth, Franklin and Ninth streets, including a portion of Chinatown, was the finding in the debris this morning of two charred bodies, presumed to be the remains of William Dunn, a plasterer, and E. Davis, a cripple. Hemmed in by the flames which quickly enveloped the Model lodging-house, the unfortunates

RUSSIANS FIRE ON STRANGERS

They Did Not Stop to Make Any Investigation.

Japanese Failed to Make Expected Attack on Enemy.

NEW CHWANG, April 11.—An official explanation was issued today of the firing of the guns from the forts here last night which caused a certain amount of excitement and the killing of two Chinese.

It appears from the official statement that, owing to the fact that the officers of the garrison did not understand the system of customs flash signals in use at the mouth of the river for the purpose of signalling the depth of the water on the bar, so as to enable ships to put to sea, fire was opened last night at some pilot boats and outward bound merchantmen.

These vessels were sighted by the forts some time after midnight and at 12:30 the artillery opened fire on the vessels, twenty-four shots being fired, including projectiles from large guns. The effect of the fire had not been reported up to noon today but it caused excitement among the troops, during which a sentry fired on and killed two Chinese opposite the foreign settlement and three members of the forts.

The Chinese had become alarmed at the firing and were endeavoring to cross the river.

In view of the reports received here of Japanese activity in Korea and of the arrival of Japanese troops on the Yalu river, it is understood that the troops of the garrison had been fully warned that it was possible the Japanese would make an attack on this place and the citizens, on hearing the firing, naturally supposed that the attempt was being made last night.

JAPAN'S FIRST ARMY LANDED.

PARIS, April 11.—Official advices received today by the French Government confirm the press dispatches announcing that Japan's first army, consisting of four army corps, is now completely landed in Korea, and the second army, consisting of a similar number of corps, is about to start. The points of debarkation of the second army are not known.

EASTER IN THE RUSSIAN CAPITAL.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 11, 2:07 p. m.—The Easter merry-making is in progress, business being suspended, the Government departments are closed and the war bulletin boards are bare except for the order for the mobilization of naval reserves. Only three newspapers appear, and they are in the form of fly sheets. M. Mesko Harky, in the Grashadanth, pays a fine tribute to Prince Miloff, the LAMP EXPLODES.

While there are a number of conflicting stories as to the origin of the fire the cause accepted by Chief Ball is that the flames were started through the explosion of a lamp in the Japanese billiard parlors, conducted by T. Tonnoye, on Ninth street.

GENERAL ALARM SOUNDED.

It was 10:07 o'clock when the initial alarm was sounded from box 62. The inflammable nature of the buildings caused the flames to spread with great rapidity and although Chief Ball and his men responded with great alacrity the Model lodging-house and the stores beneath were a seething mass of flame when they arrived.

CHIEF BALL'S SCHEME.

The blaze was attacked from all

FEW ARE INJURED.

Fred Jeffries, 60 years of age, was severely injured by jumping from the second story of the Model lodging-house, although the spectators yelled to him to wait until a blanket could be secured, into which he might jump, he was driven to such a frenzy by the terrific heat that he leaped to the sidewalk. He was carried to the Receiving Hospital, where he is now suffering from internal injuries and a sprained back.

sides by Chief Ball, who turned in a general alarm as soon as he arrived on the scene. Nine streams were used, the engines being distributed as follows:

- Engine No. 1, Ninth and Broadway.
- Engine No. 2, Eighth and Franklin.
- Engine No. 3, Eighth and Broadway.
- Engine No. 4 broke an axle.
- Engine No. 5, Eleventh and Broadway.
- Engine No. 6, sent to engine house No. 1 for reserve.
- Engine No. 7, Tenth and Franklin.
- Engine No. 8, Tenth and Webster.

THOUGHT ALL WERE SAVED.

A scene of great confusion reigned as the lodgers came pell-mell from the Model and Savoy and from the Japanese quarters on Franklin street, and Chinese hovels on Ninth street.

It was believed that all the people who had crowded into the small rooms of the lodging-houses had made their escape, although it was known that some of them got out by the merest chance.

"Nobody dreamed for a minute but that everybody got out all right," said Dr. J. A. Ambrose Saunders, the proprietor of the Model and Savoy houses,

"It is my belief that the charred corpses at the Morgue are those of E. Davis, a man 75 years of age who was crippled in his feet, and William Dunn, a plasterer who was hard of hearing. These men must have been first smothered by the smoke."

ELECTRIC POWER CUT OFF.

Passing the scene of the fire on Franklin street are the wires of the Bay Counties Power Company. Word was telephoned to one of the electric station and the power, which would have endangered the lives of the firemen, should the electric poles have burned down, was shut off.

PROPERTY LOSS HEAVY.

While the property loss will aggregate at least $36,000 the insurance carried was nominal.

This was due to the fact that the insurance companies did not look with favor on the risk and charged as high as 6 per cent.

LARGE BUILDING TO GO UP.

Now that the old buildings which have stood for the past fifteen years on Ninth and Franklin streets have been destroyed, a fine modern business block is to be erected in their place by Timothy Donohue, a millionaire mine owner residing in San Francisco.

SOHST PROPERTY SAVED.

Splendid work was done in saving the carriage manufactory of J. W. F. Sohst at the corner of Eighth and Franklin streets.

It was hemmed in on two sides by the flames the destroyed stables of John Avon adjoining it on the east and Mrs. A. Keane on the north.

BUSINESS PLACES DESTROYED.

A small business community was wiped out by the fire on the corner of Ninth and Franklin. Jeremiah Wise's saloon was swept away. Adjoining the saloon on Ninth street was a bakery conducted by Mrs. Clark. Next to this on Ninth street were Chinese merchandise places conducted by Ah Loy, a Chinese butchering establishment owned by the Chin Fook Company. Above all these places was the Model Lodging House.

Under the Savoy lodging house, on Ninth street which was owned by Timothy Donohue leased by Dr. Saunders, was the upholstering place of Alexander Hoensch and the paint store of J. S. Scott. Next came the horseshoeing shop of A. A. Gibb. The fire was stopped on Ninth street at No. 365, occupied as a Chinese lodging house.

GOOD WORK OF MERCHANTS EXCHANGE.

Wilbur Walker Tells of the Splendid Showing Made By the Local Organization.

The Merchants' Exchange of Oakland has for its primary purpose the advancement of the interests of Oakland merchants. It also promotes the welfare of Oakland and of the county in all ways possible within the scope of its purposes. Its first aim was to create a better feeling among the merchants, so that they might all pull together. Much has been accomplished by reason of this. The successes of the Merchants' Exchange are of several sorts.

One matter that has strongly engaged the attention of the Merchants' Exchange is the prevention and lessening of special licenses as against merchants doing business in Oakland. It has been claimed by the Merchants' Exchange that there is no reason, based on justice, why the merchant should shoulder a special tax or license for doing business. The money that is necessary for carrying on the city we have maintained, should be raised by general taxation. There are no merchandise licenses in existence now in Oakland. At times such licenses have ranged from $2 to $100 per quarter.

The only licenses now existing are for the regulation of special lines. Reform in the matter of the merchandise licenses was brought about by the creation of public sentiment in the first instance. It is no more equitable to specially tax the merchant than it is to tax, by license, the dentist, lawyer or medical practitioner. We contend against the license for delivering goods.

The fact has been established by the Merchants' Exchange that the merchants of Oakland can deliver in their own wagons their own merchandise without having to pay for a license to pursue that right. Formerly the Oakland merchants had to pay a license for delivering in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley. We took the license matter into court. We three times contested the license for delivering goods in Alameda and three times for the right to deliver in Berkeley and for the Oakland right once. The last decision was in favor of the Merchants' Exchange and as all five Superior Judges sat in banc to hear the case, that finally settled the matter for good.

TRADING AT HOME.

The Merchants' Exchange has striven to have the people of Alameda County trade in Oakland or in Alameda County. The basket brigade that used to come into Alameda County every evening from San Francisco has been made much smaller than it was. The same is true of the bundle array coming to Alameda County from San Francisco at Christmas time. We say and are prepared to demonstrate that purchasers of any kind of goods can buy as well in Oakland as they can in San Francisco, both as regards quality and price.

While the Merchants' Exchange has directly assisted the merchants, it has also, at the same time, increased the roads leading into Oakland. The most noteworthy of the enterprises of this sort in which the Merchants' Exchange has been engaged was the tunnel road between Alameda and Contra Costa counties. That road was projected many years ago. Since then it has been taken up as a dream at intervals. About six years ago the Exchange went at the matter in earnest and the result is that the road has been completed.

The cost of constructing the road was quite large. Three-fifths of the tunnel is in Contra Costa County. It was evident that Contra Costa County could not undertake three-fifths of the expense. It was therefore arranged that Contra Costa should pay two-fifths and the remaining one-fifth of the cost was to be raised through the agency of the Merchants' Exchange by subscriptions. This plan was carried out successfully. The Merchants' Exchange raised between $11,000 and $12,000. The road does not reduce the distance, but decreases the grade for the people of Contra Costa County to get into Oakland to trade.

The Merchants' Exchange also put through the Redwood Canyon and Moraga Valley road, otherwise known as the Medina road. The Exchange has also co-operated with others in the new foot-hill road from Oakland to Hayward. That follows the line of the lower foothills and is distinctively a scenic drive. One provision is that no electric or other railway shall be constructed on the road. We co-operated with other bodies in that. The Merchants' Exchange has assisted in having Oakland's streets improved. The work on Telegraph avenue is now under way and it will probably be completed in six months.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Five successful celebrations of the Fourth of July in Oakland have been brought about by the Merchants' Exchange. Each, in succession, has been better than the preceding ones. This has almost led us to dread the next celebration for fear that it will not keep up the record of being an improvement on those that have gone before it. In former years Oakland would have a fine Fourth of July procession in the forenoon. After that was over every one would go out of the city.

The Merchants' Exchange has realized that there could be a practical as well as a patriotic side to the Fourth of July celebrations. In carrying out this idea, celebrations have been devised so that the visitors to the city would remain all day. There have been morning parades, afternoon exercises at Lake Merritt and fireworks in the evening. This has resulted in leaving quite a large sum of money from outside in Oakland every Fourth of July. Thousands of visitors have been brought to the city and induced to pass the Fourth in Oakland.

The Merchants' Exchange has co-operated to bring people to Oakland during the sessions of the national assemblies of various kinds in San Francisco. Oakland days have become well known. The fame of Oakland has been largely extended thereby. Oakland entertained, among other famous guests, President McKinley and President Roosevelt. Arrangements are making now for the entertainment of the delegates to the National Retail Grocers' Convention to be held soon in San Francisco.

Recently the Merchants' Exchange has been engaged in collecting the Alameda county exhibit for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis. This work has been in charge of a committee headed by Mr. Glen. Mr. Welby is now in St. Louis attending to the installation of the Alameda county exhibit.

Co-operating with others, the Merchants' Exchange aided to secure the passage in the California Legislature of the bill to permit the garnishment of the FLAMES SHUT IN LODGERS.

Adjoining Wise's saloon on Franklin street was F. H. Snively's harness shop, Japanese billiard parlors, Conrad Gobel's carriage shop, A. S. Hank's livery stable and a Japanese lodging house.

On Eighth street a barn owned by John Avon and leased by Fred Becker, the butcher, was destroyed. A cottage owned by John Avon and occupied by his son, W. J. Avon was burned and another cottage, at No. 354 Eighth street, occupied by Charles G. Damon and owned by W. J. Avon partially destroyed.

HORSES SAFELY REMOVED.

Forty-eight horses belonging to Becker were removed from the Avon barn together with a quantity of grain.

CHINESE FIND GOLD.

Chin Fook and Ah Loy recovered considerable gold money from the debris this morning. They had hidden away the money in their stores.

SEARCH FOR BODIES.

This afternoon the search in the debris for additional bodies is being carried on with considerable activity.

NORRIS AND ROWE'S STREET PARADE.

The street parade of Norris & Rowe's big shows this morning brought out great crowds of people, and the spectators were given a free show that was more than satisfactory. Circus parades are much of the same general character, but as this is early in the season, the Norris & Rowe pageant was unusually brilliant in fresh paint, new costumes and banners that had not yet begun to show the wear and tear of the road. The heavy draft horses, the riding stock, the animals and wild beasts all appeared sleek and well fed, and the appearance of the people looked as if their recent big successful San Francisco engagement had done them good.

At an early hour this morning people thronged the streets as though many of them were making a holiday of the occasion. The parade passed through the principal thoroughfares and made a royal cavalcade. The display on the streets was at times very splendid, but as this is served to show how greatly the aggregation of people would be, the parade was of the last season and gave some inkling of the excellent program that was offered this afternoon.

ARRESTED FOR CRUELTY.

H. A. C. Kaufmann, a scavenger, was arrested this morning at Seventeenth street and Telegraph avenue on a charge of cruelty to animals preferred by C. Van Loven. The horse is alleged to have been in a pitiable condition owing to numerous sores.

Smashed the Record

Our sales sheet of Hats surprised us for Saturday's record smashed all previous days in this store's history. We did an immense trade in all departments, but the Hat Department just swooped things. It is pretty fair proof that our Hat Department is being looked too and looked after by Hat judges.

OUTFITTERS FOR MALE FOLKS

WINS THE PRIZE FOR THE BEST BOND ANSWERS.

The committee of business men, to whom was referred the answers in THE TRIBUNE prize contest, have awarded the prize to Burton Sheldon of 1264 Harrison street, this city. Where many of the answers were so excellent it was no small matter to make a selection, but taking all the answers as a group those sent in by Mr. Sheldon were the best. While several of the contestants sent in to THE TRIBUNE one, two or possibly four answers that were really good, one or two would not be up to the standard, hence the committee took into consideration the replies which all in all, were, in their opinion, the best.

Messrs. H. C. Capwell, Sol Kahn and C. J. Heesman constituted the committee and while they regret that all of the contestants could not get the award they hope at some future time the others will be more successful.

The replies sent in by Mr. Sheldon are concise, lucid and practical in the main and are as follows:

The citizens of Oakland should vote for bonds:

First: Because they will make possible the creation of a Greater Oakland.

Second: Because in no other way can the money necessary for much needed public improvements be made immediately available.

Third: Because the improvements proposed not only benefit the present, but the future, and the future will be compelled to bear its fair share of the cost.

Fourth: Because bonds do not detract from the wealth of the city, but add much to it by creating new public utilities.

Fifth: Because bonds mean the employment of many men and large expenditures which will benefit the wage earners and be at once transferred into the channels of trade.

Sixth: Because such improvements as new public buildings, schools, parks, boulevards, better streets, etc., will encourage investments in Oakland that will increase the amount of taxable property, thereby producing an augmented revenue to meet the interest and provide for the ultimate redemption of the bonds, leaving the community permanently enriched.

BURTON SHELDON,
1264 Harrison Street, Oakland.

Mr. Sheldon can secure the $10 prize by calling at THE TRIBUNE office.

NO COUNSEL FOR HER

Mrs. Cordelia Botkin Appears in Court Alone.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—Mrs. Cordelia Botkin appeared today in Police Judge Conlan's court to answer to the charge of murdering M. S. Deane, sister of Mrs. John P. Dunning, at Dover, Del., by means of poisoned candy mailed from San Francisco.

The accused woman appeared without counsel.

She said that the information against her, which had been sworn to by Joshua D. Deane, husband of the woman alleged to have been poisoned, was news to her and that she scarcely knew how to proceed in the matter.

She added that she had risen from a sick bed to appear in court.

Judge Conlan, after telling that she certainly was entitled to the services of counsel, postponed a further hearing of the case until tomorrow.

In continuing the case, Judge Conlan said that if the defendant could not obtain counsel by tomorrow, he would appoint lawyers to act for her. One of her former attorneys, she said, is ill and the other is out of town.

FORTY-INJURED IN RUSSIAN FIRE ON STRANGERS.

REMAINS OF SANTA BARBARA VICTIMS BURIED TODAY

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 11.—Funeral services over the bodies of three of the victims of yesterday's disaster, Raymond Reynolds, Leon Calderone and Francisco Dominguez, will be held here this afternoon. The funeral of the remaining unfortunate, Earl Golan and James Smith will occur tomorrow.

The injured are now recovering and it is expected that all will recover. Thomas Quinn, who suffered a compound fracture of the leg and other injuries is the most seriously hurt. He, with a number of others, is in the Cottage Hospital. The remaining injured were taken to their homes, mostly suffering only from slight cuts and bruises. Motorman Keillon is among the most painfully hurt. He sustained a deep, ragged cut in the back and suffered a considerable loss of blood. Mrs. Julius Kruttschnitt, wife of the railroad magnate, was only slightly bruised and aside from a severe nervous shock, is suffering little ill effect from her experience. Out of a total of 112 passengers who were aboard the ill-fated car, forty sustained injuries of some sort.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WILL BE CROWDED.

The public schools of Oakland were reopened this morning after the mid-term vacation of two weeks. The attendance was very large and the prospects are that during the remainder of the school year the schools will be barely able to accommodate the students wishing to attend. The superintendent, Mr. McElmunda, said that the present school year gives great promise of going down into history as one of the most successful. Oakland has even more than 100,000 students, he said, made absolutely necessary that the bond issue, which can raise plans for much additional space for the accommodation of the growing school population, should carry.

HE MAY KNOW ABOUT THOMAS' DEATH

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—Lawrence Gibson, also known as John Oakley, a former employee at Houston Hall, the club house of the students of the University of Pennsylvania, was arrested today on suspicion of knowing something of the murder of John Thomas, an aged watchman, who was shot and killed last night in one of the bowling alleys in the basement.

SHIPBUILDING RE-ORGANIZATION.

TRENTON, N. J., April 11.—Judge Keenpatric, in the United States Court today, said the would sign an order in conformity with Receiver Smith's suggestion and the plan of the re-organization committee of the United States Shipbuilding Company, set out in the circular sent out by the latter under date of February 4, 1904.

ARRAIGNED FOR ALLEGED MURDER.

WALTHAM, Mass., April 11.—Charles L. Buckton was arraigned here today and formally charged with the murder of Miss Mabel Page at West Newton. He pleaded not guilty and the case was continued. Miss Page was stabbed to death at her home in West Newton on March 31.

FLOOD IN CANADA.

MONTREAL, April 11.—The flood situation in this city and vicinity remains unchanged. There is no danger at present for the city proper, the water being lower than yesterday, and six feet below the top of the permanent dyke. The only thing to be feared is a heavy rain rain.

HE HAS GUSTED HIS COUSIN

KLONDIKE MILLIONAIRE HAVING TROUBLE OVER HIS HOME.

BERKELEY, April 11.—Andrew Hunter, the Klondike millionaire, who secured the eviction of his cousin, Mrs. Chelinda Carroll, from his newly completed $17,000 mansion at 2421 Bancroft Way, is having a lively time with his relative.

Mr. Hunter now denounces Mrs. Carroll and all day today he and a party of friends have been guarding the house to prevent her from carrying away what is left of the magnificent furniture with which the Klondiker has fitted up his residence.

When seen at his new home, where he was on guard, Mr. Hunter made the following statement after a long time, but he had just finished the erection and furnishing of this home, and as my cousin had met with reverses, I offered to let her live in the house in consideration of her paying the taxes. Soon she claimed that the house belonged to her and tried to put me out by force.

"When I discovered that she really intended to beat me out of my house, I told her to leave and a war of resistance and deputies Murdoch and Kelley came from Oakland and took charge of the house for me."

"Mrs. Carroll, however, had got there first and was carrying away goods when they arrived, despite the order of the court. She carried her trunk and, evidently, she came back, because when I came out today, lace curtains, tapestries and other valuables of several hundred dollars were missing."

"I am on guard now and she shall not be able to repeat the performance. I have sent my attorney to Oakland to get an order from the court compelling her to return my property."

ALL IS QUIET AT THE FRONT.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 11.—5:45 p. m.—The Associated Press is informed officially that up to the present hour the Government has not received any advices of Eastern disturbances anywhere in European Russia. Complete quiet reigns, according to reports, from all the Jewish centers of population.

SURVIVORS ARE AMONG FRIENDS.

SEBASTOPOL, April 11.—The observance of Easter here was marked by a patriotic demonstration in honor of the arrival of the captain and other survivors of the crew of the Russian gunboat Korietz. Vice-Admiral Skrydlov, the commander of the Russian Black Sea fleet, in handling them the Cross of St. George, compared their exploits to the heroic defense of the Russians at Sebastopol.

PEOPLE PRAY FOR VICTORY.

VLADIVOSTOK, April 11.—The churches today have been crowded in honor of the Easter holiday with people praying for victory. Many of the inhabitants who fled from Vladivostok to Khabarovsk, Eastern Siberia, at the outbreak of the war, are now here.

HOBSON FIGHTS FOR CONGRESS.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 11.—A general Democratic primary is being held throughout Alabama for the nomination of seven Supreme Court Judges, President of the State Railroad Commission, nine Congressmen, seventeen Circuit Judges, five Chancellors, seventeen Clerks and numerous county officers and for the selection of delegates to the State Democratic Convention to be held in Montgomery on May 25. There seems to be a strong sentiment that Alabama should send an instructed delegation to the St. Louis Convention.

Five of the nine Congressmen now in office are unopposed for a re-nomination. In the Sixth ward contest for the taking place, Captain R. P. Hobson is opposing Congressman Bankhead, and the result will be close.

BOYS IN TROUBLE.

George Puell, aged 17; William Jackson, aged 16; Samuel Rose, aged 13; and Walter Rose, aged 17, were arrested Saturday night for breaking into the markets in the Exposition building and eating their fill on fruit.

Chief of Police Hodgkins has not determined what to do with the boys. They have all been in trouble before.

KIDNAPS HIS BABY AND CAPTURED.

CLAY CENTER, Kas., April 11.—Evelyn was caused today when Rev. John Jackson, a minister of Denton, Texas, kidnapped his own baby and made an attempt to escape with it in a buggy. He was captured by the sheriff after an exciting three mile race and the baby restored to its mother. No warrant was sworn out for the Rev. Jackson, and no action probably will be taken against him. Rev. Jackson was pastor at the Euclid Avenue Methodist Church at Topeka.

WIFE'S STARTLING STORY

MRS. JENNIE PAGE OF SAN LEANDRO RELATES SHOCK-ING TALES.

The trial of the divorce suit brought by Jennie Page against R. B. Page of San Leandro is being heard behind closed doors before Judge Melvin today. The plaintiff is a young woman who married a man nearly twice her age and after living with him for ten years her life has become so unhappy that, she alleges, she can no longer live with him.

Both parties to the suit are well known residents of San Leandro. Mrs. Page was formerly Jennie Davis and attended to girl and womanhood in the town which has since been her home. She is figured to be wealthy. For several years past he has not worked, and his means are sufficient to support him in luxurious idleness.

Startling charges are made by the young wife against her spouse and cover the entire range of marital relationship. Starvation abuse and vulgarly in aggravated form are among the charges which take up several pages of a type-written complaint. Attorneys McElroy and Chapman represent Mrs. Page, while Attorney Frick and Kinsell appear for the defendant.

Mrs. Page is attractive looking and was the first witness to take the stand. She came into court looking cool and comfortable, attired in a light shirt waist and becoming hat. Considerable time was spent in the reading of the complaint and a discussion relative to the precise facts and most of the morning was gone before the plaintiff's tale of trouble was fairly begun.

The principal charge against Page is cruelty in a variety of forms. In the first complaint filed against him it was alleged that he did not take a bath once a week. Upon an amended complaint being filed, however, this charge was left out, much to the disappointment of Page, whose attorneys state that he wished to combat this point and show for his own sake that he was entitled to a divorce. It was not mentioned in the present list of grievances so cannot become material.

Page's account book, however, it is expected, will show alone, according to the statement of counsel, that the wife is entitled to a divorce. He grounds that owing to his alleged miserly tendencies he has not given her enough to eat.

"We will show to the court in his own handwriting that Page has got the art of counting to a fine point, and that he could live cheaper than a Chinaman. This was carried to such an extreme that Mrs. Page became rundown and her health seriously injured," said one of her attorneys.

"Ten cents worth of hamburger steak he would make last two days. Soup was their principal diet."

Then there are distressing details of an private nature which, when they came up, led to a very clear the room of the general public.

But it is his alleged cruelty and parsimony, when he has wealth with which to supply all that life needs to make happiness, is what is most complained of and which, the wife alleges, has forced her to make her private affairs public.

It is not known of how much wealth the defendant is possessed, but it is believed that he is well on to the $50,000 mark and Mrs. Page has a share of the community property and alimony.

"JAP" BOTHERING RUSSIA.

MINISTER OF TZAR'S LAND MAKES OBJECTION TO OFFICER IN CHINA'S ARMY.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 11.—The reports that Mr. L'vov, the Russian minister at Peking, had made among representatives to the Chinese government on the subject of the Japanese officers with General Nogi's army, demanding the issuance of orders for their dismissal, are confirmed here.

Russia regards their continued presence where they are as being a serious threat to her. It is pointed out that without the consent of the Peking government, the Japanese officers who are with General Ma, who is now north of the Great Wall, easily can obtain dominant influence over the Chinese troops and use them if the Japanese operations demand the creation of a division in General Kurapatkin's rear, possibly resulting in cutting off his communications.

If General Kurapatkin is compelled in time of stress to meet a sudden and unexpected attack from this quarter, it might greatly embarrass him. Of course, the Peking government would disavow any complicity, but the harm would be done and Russia considers that the immediate removal of Japanese infantry with the Chinese army is imperative. While it is not specifically stated that the Chinese demands to comply with the Russian demands for neutrality, this is believed to be the true account of the situation. It is added that Kurapatkin will be available for use in the direction of the Chinese frontier, but no confirmation of this report is obtainable.

CARMEN MEET.

No Agreement Reached With Railroad Officials.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—The conference between the special committee of the Street Carriers' Union and the railroad officials was resumed today.

Since the last conference, held last Friday afternoon, there have been no developments in the situation and the outcome of the pending discussion is a mere matter of speculation.

Neither side at this time admits that it has either made or received concessions. In fact, the stage that has been reached thus far in the negotiations is not divulged by either party, but it is understood that all the time has been consumed in lengthy discussion and that no agreements have yet been reached upon any important points.

While the conference may last several days longer, it is not impossible that it may come to a sudden termination at almost any time as a result of hopeless disagreement over some vital issue.

SULTAN REFUSED CONSULTATION.

GEN. LEONARD WOOD MAKES RE-TURNS REGARDING UP-RISING.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The following bulletin was posted at the War Department today:

General Wood reports that he invited Sultan "Carmen" to meet him at Vicksburg on March 23 for consultation and the Sultan refused to come, instead making extensive hostile preparations. Marching columns from Marahut and Vicksburg left on the second of April to assemble the cavalry.

The Vicksburg column was fired into all night ten miles from Vicksburg and one enlisted man was seriously wounded.

The Marahut column was strongly resisted at the mouth of the Tarece river, although every effort was made to accomplish a successful landing. Two enlisted men were seriously wounded.

The combined forces assembled in the valley on the fourth of April and a large number of hostile fortified camps occupied were destroyed from April 4 to April 7. The troops then returned to their proper stations. Newburgh, Company K, 17th Infantry, and Wampeter, Company D, 23rd Infantry, were killed. Every effort was made to bring the Marahuts to terms peacefully but in each instance our troops were attacked before being able to reach the Marahuts. General Wood's report was made and who transmitted it to the department, adds that the conditions in the Tarece valley for the last three months have been such as to render the above action absolutely necessary.

MERRICK BOYS RELEASED.

William and Fred Merrick, two young boys accused of disturbing the peace of Mrs. J. Frank, 834 Seventeenth street, were released by Police Judge Samuels this morning on the ground that they were too young to be prosecuted. The boys are 19 and 12 years old respectively.

NEW IDORA PARK BALL GROUNDS

FEARED POISON.

Louis Thima Makes Charges Against His Wife.

WILL BE OPENED SUNDAY
MORNING WITH A STAR GAME.

Tomorrow the Oaklandians will play the Seattle team for the last time on the old baseball grounds, but on Sunday morning will play the Seattles for the first time on the new Idora Park grounds, which have been put in the most perfect shape possible. The Idora Park grounds are said to be the finest on the Pacific Coast. One admission not only pays for witnessing the ball game, but gives entry to every part of the park.

There will be a special Key Route ferry will run direct to the park for the accommodation of the San Francisco contingent. The well known car rental abundance of cabs for the accommodation of the ball enthusiasts of Oakland, and the fact that the Seattles are expected that the Oakland and Seattle teams will put up a star game Sunday to give eclat to the opening of the new grounds.

LICK'S ATHLETES WIN OUT.

ATHLETES ON THIS SIDE OF THE BAY MAKE A GALLANT SHOWING.

BERKELEY, April 10.—The sturdy athletes of the California School of Mechanical Arts of San Francisco, who have come to the front with a rush this year, won the championship of the Academic Athletic League last Saturday on the Berkeley oval in the biggest and best scholastic field day ever held in Western America by wrestling the local team from Lick in the final hurdle of the twelve-pound hammer, which was left for the last event. The athletes of the local high school, handicapped by the lack of numbers and the youthfulness of the men, were forced to take fifth place in the field day.

Twelve schools and academies were represented in the events. Two thousand, nine hundred intensely enthusiastic partisan spectators were crowded into the tree-shaded Berkeley oval. In every race the excitement was intense and in some of the closer big races and in the memorable relay, the demonstrations and noise reached a frenzied condition. Two records were broken and one record tied, while the performance in every event was uniformly good. In the relay the team from Lick defeated Oakland clipping one second from the national interscholastic record of 3:22, formerly held by Oakland. The Academic Athletic League record of 3:28, also held by Oakland, was reduced two seconds. The event was one of the most exciting of the day. Pope, who ran the first lap gained a substantial lead of fifteen yards over Rye of Oakland. Sheehan and Vesper of Oakland reduced this lead to five yards before the finish, but strain as they might, they could not overtake the fleet runners from Lick. On the winning relay team were Coe, Beck, McKinnon, O'Connor and Deaton, each of whom ran 334 yards of the mile. The cheers and yells of the 5000 spectators, all of whom were on their feet during the race, were deafening.

Munn, a sturdy young athlete from Modesto, the same school that has produced Sperry, the crack University of California Freshman athlete, broke the record in the pole vault, clearing the bar at ten feet nine inches, adding an inch and a half to the former record held by Huxley of Ukiah. Munn also took second place in the shotput and third in the high jump, making nine points, the only ones secured by his school. Next to that of Melvin of Oakland this was the best individual record of the day.

Melvin of Oakland made himself the hero of the day in the eyes of his schoolmates by capturing first place in both the hurdle races. This gave his school 10 points, the largest number made by any single contestant during the day. He also made fourth with his hurdle, but did no better than fourth place. The finish in the mile race was the prettiest of the day. Even to the point where they cleared the last hurdle, Melvin and Horton of Ukiah were abreast. In the sprint finish, however, Melvin by a desperate effort, managed to pull ahead and won the race with less than a foot to spare. Ukiah took third place in the meet with 1834 points. The time was 1:15.5. Berkeley fifth with 1111; Santa Clara, sixth with 844; Modesto, seventh with 799; Fresno, eighth with 115 and Santa Rosa, high last with 1 point.

In the mile run De Munn of Lowell defeated Hunter of Ukiah, the holder of the present record in the event. Until the last two feet of the finish they were running an almost tie, first one and then the other being a few paces in the lead. De Munn at the last strained every muscle and took the race with but two feet to spare. The time was 4:18.5 seconds, came within one-fifth of a second of touching the record made by Hunter last year.

The 100-yard dash was another exciting race. The record of 15.5 seconds, held by Elmer of Ukiah, was equaled by Coe of Lick, who won the race. Schwartz, the crack Lowell sprinter, was finishing in the lead and would have won had not his ankle given out. He grittily finished fourth, however, though suffering intense pain. The accident will probably prevent him from entering another field day. The following schools participated in the meet: Berkeley, Lick, Fresno, Lowell, Modesto, Oakland, Santa Clara, Santa Rosa, Ukiah and Vallejo.

WORLD'S FAIR NEWS.
NEW YORK, April 11.—(Division of the National Jury of selection for the Department of Art for the World's Fair at St. Louis have been holding meetings here to pass upon works submitted by artists desiring to exhibit at St. Louis. In all nearly 1000 works have been judged from among which have been selected 1161 productions, considered by the jurors as possessing sufficient merit to represent American art in competition with the products of the most civilized countries of the world.

The works selected include paintings, etchings, engravings, drawings, architectural exhibits and examples of art projects for mural decoration. These will not be the entire exhibit as the board will sit in several other cities and also examine pictures submitted by American painters residing abroad.

POSTAL CLERK ARRESTED.
NEW YORK, April 11.—James P. Zehner, a clerk in the general postoffice, has been arrested on a charge of stealing letters and packages from mailbags. According to the inspectors, more than 1000 pieces of mail including registered letters and packages worth in all about $5000 have been stolen recently from the mail. Most of the missing letters were from the jewelry district and contained either money or small articles of value.

HONTON WON FOR RYAN.

TOOK THE FIFTH RACE FROM GATEWAY IN HARD BATTLE.

A large crowd of enthusiastic followers of the races was at the Emeryville track last Saturday. The day was ideal and the track fast.

A filly named Wiggins took the first race of six furlongs easily, and the favorite, Modesto, came in a disappointment to his supporters. My Surprise led Bonner up and though the gelding had no chance to win the race as it was run, he had a fight with Titus for the place and got it. My Surprise should have gone to the front sooner, and laid back too long. Titus had good speed. Lady Atheling is about out of the class and did not do well, though running fourth. Skip Me, Modesto, Modesto, Sals and Florida Belle also ran in the order named. Clausius, Solimo, St. Winifride, Emil, Miluh and Andrad were scratched. The time was 1:13.8.

Bonner rode the Mist a pretty race in the second race of one mile and four furlongs. The start was good and the field got away in a bunch. George P. McNear had a good position from the start, was piloted well and finished strongly, but not good enough to take the wire. The Mist had the speed and was ridden out. At the paddock McNear found the pace too hot and had to pull up. Sea Air should have done better and had to battle with George P. McNear for the place. The filly at no time looked like an also ran and ran a fair race, though Knapp did not. Pirella was fourth. San Jose, a hundred to one shot came fifth, and Pirella was last. The time was 1:48.

The Pirella was a Mexican dollar in the one mile race of one mile and four furlongs. The start was good and the field got away in a bunch. George P. McNear had a good position from the start, was piloted well and finished strongly, but not good enough to take the wire. The Mist had the speed and was ridden out. At the paddock McNear found the pace too hot and had to pull up. Sea Air should have done better and had to battle with George P. McNear for the place. The filly at no time looked like an also ran and ran a fair race, though Knapp did not. Pirella was fourth. San Jose, a hundred to one shot came fifth, and Pirella was last. The time was 1:48.

Horton closed at 1 to 2 in the fifth race, Bonner was up. Division was liked by many but got away badly and lost all chances of winning. G. W. Trueman ran about right, as did also our Bessie. Gateway of Ukiah in a good position, handled well and fought for the wire with Hontion, the winner. Hontion stumbled badly at the start, but recovered and made up a lot of ground, taking the lead and holding it. The others finished as follows: Hontion, Gateway, G. W. Trueman, Our Bessie and Divina. The time for the mile and a sixteenth was 1:46.2.

Mansard had the race already won before the start, according to the fastest and Oeyrohe was played heavily. Mansard won in a gallop and had speed to spare. The card showed a bad lot, but Ananas was figured on, but could not get in the money and was outclassed. Oeyrohe came home an easy second to finish, but did not make a winning third. Ishtar was fourth. Ananas, Oeyrohe, Ebony and Gondolus finished as named. Dr. Rowell and I Know were scratched. The time for the six and a half furlongs was 1:20.

In the seventh and last race Minion won easily the mile distance. Forest King ran a good race and was the best of the rest of the field, though should have done better. Oro Viven ran third. Golden Light did not make a cashing race. Last Knight was not last, but ran fifth. Solon, Sals and I Know were scratched. The time was 1:40.

WORLD'S FAIR TRIP MAY BE U. C. TEAM'S REWARD.

Extensive Tour for California Ball-tossers Depends on Result of California Series.

BERKELEY, April 11.—Should the University of California baseball team win the third and deciding game of the intercollegiate series, there is every indication that the nine will take a trip to the St. Louis Exposition. Athletics are to be made a feature of the World's Fair and the managers of the exposition have already made overtures to have the champion college baseball team of the coast appear in the athletic carnival to be held at the fair.

If the local nine should prove victorious in the coming game, which will be played at Recreation Park, in San Francisco, next Saturday, or a week from that date, there is no doubt but what the executive committee of the Associated Students of the University of California would sanction the trip, as the team which goes East will have its expenses paid by the World's Fair. It is also figured out that the team could make considerable money by not only playing games with ten or twelve college nines in the vicinity of St. Louis, but by taking a trip through the northwestern part of the country. On the northern trip, which was taken two years ago, the players were taken with sacks of money for the Associated Students' treasury. The unusual incentive attached to the next intercollegiate game promises to make it one of the most stubbornly contested in the history of college baseball on this coast.

EXCELSIORS BEAT CONTEST ENDS RELIABLES. IN DRAW.

BATTLE ROYAL IN AMATEUR BASE BALL GAME YESTERDAY.

In one of the best amateur games seen in a long time the Excelsiors defeated the Reliabilities yesterday by a score of 1 to 0.

The stars of the game were Cox and Kimball, the opposing pitchers, both trying their best to outpitch the other. Cox allowed only five hits and gave but one pass, while six hits and two passes were made off Kimball's delivery.

TOURNAMENT BETWEEN CALIFORNIA AND STANFORD RESULTS IN TIE.

BERKELEY, April 11.—In the intercollegiate chess tournament, which was played in the library of the Mechanics Institute of San Francisco Friday night and Saturday morning, neither the Stanford nor the California team was able to score a victory.

The tournament this year was unusually exciting, both teams saw that their opponents were no novices at the game and every move was usually planned and executed with masterly precision. The final score was 2 1/2 to 3 1/2, the tie being the result of both sides. Stanford felt sure of victory, having an unusually strong team, whereas the representatives of California had desired to restore things to their old order, last year, when the tournament and loss was balanced by A. H. Rhubarb's victory over E. H. Sawyer, '01. California's third match was won by E. K. Strong '08 from A. Parsons, while Stanford got her third victory through Stearns, who won from R. L. Ezenhoff, '07. The seventh match between A. D. Webster, '05, and U. L. Clark of Stanford was adjourned at 12:30 until 4 o'clock Saturday morning. It resulted in a draw.

game—2 hours. Umpire Huston.

AT FRESNO.

San Francisco didn't give Tacoma a chance on the diamond yesterday and only gave away one run. Tacoma got eight base hits and San Francisco seven. There was an attendance of about three thousand. Bare and Sheehan for Tacoma made two errors each, the only ones of the game.

The score was as follows:

A LITTLE RUN ON JARDINIERS

Nothing half so cool these days as a feathery fern in the room. That's why the jardiniere sale is a timely one for you. We've got many of them. That's why it is timely for us.

Prices are annexed:

Jardiniere of Japanese terra cotta, ornamented with raised figures, 3 inch size—value 20c—special price . . . 10c
5 inch size—value 40c—special price . . . 25c
7 1/2 inch size—value 55c—special price . . . 50c
11 inch size—value $2.00—special price . . . $1.00
Jardiniere of American pottery with a high glaze over blended reds, greens, and browns—9 inch size—easily worth $1.65—special price . . . $1.25 each
Utopian jardiniere which show a brown glaze over floral designs done in high relief—7 inch size—reduced from $2.25 to . . . $1.25 each

Cool Summer Draperies Much Underpriced

It looks cool. Possibly a pretty drape at the window doesn't send the thermometer down, but it reduces your mental temperature as much as we've reduced the price of the material you want for the drapes.

Japanese figured crepe—white grounds, splattered over with blue, green and red. It's thirty inches wide—a good curtain width. While it lasts, these 35c goods will be sold for25c per yard

That Oriental Rug Sale Again

A twenty per cent reduction—that means $20.00 for a $25.00 rug—prevails on every one of the superb Taft & Pennoyer collection of Oriental rugs. There are about two hundred of them, and every one a splendid example of the rug weaver's art. Prices have been $15.00 to $200.00. This week you may subtract from these figures

SILLY STORIES ABOUT THE COUNTY INFIRMARY.

Spread By a Pair of Discharged Employees—A Well Managed Institution.

A lot of absurd stories about the management of the County Infirmary have lately been set afloat by two discharged employees who grossly misinterpreted themselves at the institution. Among the charges is an assertion given to the San Francisco press by these veracious and disinterested guardians of the public interests that the Grand Jury will investigate an alleged discrepancy of several thousands of dollars in the accounts of the infirmary. There is no such discrepancy nor discrepancy of any kind and the Grand Jury is not interested themselves about the matter. In checking up the accounts of the several county institutions H. K. Snow, the expert of the Grand Jury, has found that vouchers for the sum of $65.11 have not been reported. This amount represents expenditures made from the petty cash account of the County Infirmary, the bills for which have been approved but which have not been returned canceled. These trifling discrepancies always exist owing to the fact that all outstanding bills are not immediately presented. These slight differences are simply an incident to the ordinary course of business and are always accounted for because the books of the infirmary show the amount and source of all the moneys received and the precise purpose for which they are expended. The petty cash of the infirmary is derived from the sale of pigs and junk and is expended for contingent expenses. The bills being approved by the Board of Supervisors. Formerly eggs and chickens were sold but that practice has been discontinued, all eggs and chickens produced at the infirmary ranch being consumed at the institution. Excellent management is used by Superintendent Clark in conducting the infirmary farm. When he took office there were twenty-five chickens on the place. Now there are about 3000 and 1200 more were destroyed as the result of a fire at the infirmary several weeks ago. The two discharged employees who have been busy peddling malicious fables about the infirmary all ridiculous yarns about the luxury of the Superintendent's living and household appointments which the most casual investigation contradicts. It is in his private expenses are foolishly exaggerated and alleged to be charges against the county. The books of the institution show the falsity of these allegations. In a nut shell, there is nothing to the whole business save the venomous spleen of a pair of employees who abused their positions and were dismissed in disgrace.

BURGLARS VISIT SCAVENGER'S CASE IN COURT

NIGHT WATCHMAN THOMPSON HAS AN EXCITING ADVENTURE.

BERKELEY, April 11.—Nightwatchman George Thompson had an exciting encounter early this morning with one of the gang of desperate burglars, that are infesting the college town. The robber was discovered at work trying to effect an entrance through the rear door into the bicycle store of Otto Putzker at 2142 Shattuck avenue in the center of town. Thompson scaled a rear fence and came upon the burglar as he was working at the door with a jimmy. He ordered the fellow to throw up his hands, but instead of complying the robber made a dash for liberty in the opposite direction. Thompson fired, but the shot missed its mark and the burglar escaped.

A second burglary occurred in West Berkeley some time during the night in which the knights of the jimmy were more successful. They entered the jewelry store of J. H. Gentry on University avenue and secured watches and jewelry to the amount of about $200. Entrance into the store was effected in a bold manner. A whole pane of glass was broken in the front window and through the intruders crawled. They carried off an oak case in which the watches were locked.

The burglar at work in the rear of Putzker's store was first discovered by "Bill" Henderson, who conducts a restaurant street just back of Putzker's place. As he was closing up at 2 o'clock this morning he heard some one at work in the rear of the store and he once surmised that burglars were at work. He summoned Thompson and the latter arrived in time to take a shot at the robber.

"I had to climb over a fence to get at the store where the burglar was working," said Thompson this morning. "I guess he heard me coming, for when I got in sight of him he had already started to run. I ordered him to stop and when he did not obey I fired. I missed him, however, and before I could get another aim he had disappeared. Henderson said he saw him crawl under his building after he escaped me, so I sent for Marshal Kerns and Deputy Howland, and the three of us watched the place until morning, but could get no further trace of the fellow."

Outcrops in the rear of a few doors from the dry goods house of L. Buff, which was entered from the rear in the same fashion as the employed by the latter last night. Eighteen boxes of dry goods to the value of several hundred dollars were carried off. Marshal Kerns has several suspects under surveillance.

The cases of the scavenger's charged with the violation of the new garbage ordinance came up before Police Judge Smith this morning. It was agreed by Prosecutors Attorney Leach and Attorney Kelly, representing the defendants, that the cases should go over until April 12, at which time the defendant to the complaint should be argued.

The court asked that the entire question be submitted on briefs. The complaint will be attacked on the ground that it is not sufficient and that its allegations do not charge a public offense. The matter of the legality of the ordinance will also be brought up.

Attorney Lin Church was in the court this morning and announced that he would be associated with the defense in the future.

In Judge Smith's court this case of Eugene Lafranco and E. Leonardini were selected as test cases. The cases coming up in Police Judge Samuel's court were postponed until April 15. In postponing the cases Judge Samuel remarked that all the cases before him would have to be tried. He said that he was willing to take the cases just as fast as they could be gotten to, and that he would grant continuances only when necessary.

"MAJOR" WATERS WANTED HIS CLOTHES
"Major" Water, alias Robert Waters, the colored cake walker and champion chimney sweep, pleaded not guilty this morning in the Police Court to the charge of committing battery on the person of Mrs. Lena Reed, at her residence, 167 Eleventh street, and asked to be released on his own recognizance pending the trial of the case. Judge Samuel before whom the matter came, listened to the shuffling harrangue of the cake walker and granted his request.

The trouble between the parties involved seems to be that the husband of Mrs. Reed and the Major had some difficulty, with the result that Mr. Reed was arrested at the instance of Mrs. Waters. After this event Mrs. Waters called at the house at which he had been formerly employed by Mrs. Reed refused to allow him to enter. He said that he wanted his clothes and in order to effect an entrance he was compelled to use a sufficient amount of force to shove Mr. Reed aside. He got the clothes despite Mrs. Reed's protest that she had not been paid for the room.

Mrs. Reed then swore out a warrant for the arrest of the Major.

"YOUNG DEMPSEY" AGAIN IN TROUBLE.
George Ormerod, a young man with a career who has been in the Police Court more than twenty times, was arrested last night on the charge of assaulting Chas. Eagan and I. R. Rademacher in West Oakland without the slightest provocation. He was under the influence of liquor and was in a very ugly mood, and sought to provoke a fight with every one with whom he came in contact. Eagan and his friend came along and were made the target for stones and other movable things in the hands of Ormerod. He hit Eagan with a stone and succeeded in inflicting some damage on Rademacher. He was overpowered, however, and was turned over to the police. He will be charged with an assault with a deadly weapon.

SECURITIES CASE.
NEW YORK, April 11.—The hearing in the suit of the Continental Securities Company, which was to have come up in Jersey City today, has been set for April 18. The case is an application for an injunction against the announced method of distributing the stocks held by the Northern Securities Company.

SUPERVISORS IN SESSION

MATTERS HANDLED AT THE MEETING THIS MORNING.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning, all the members of the Board were present:

REQUISITIONS.
Requisitions were granted as follows: District Attorney Allen, for monthly paper, invoice stubs, etc.; Reporter Grim for pencil tips and legal cap paper; Assessor Dalton for stamp box and stub files.

ROAD REPORTS.
Reports of road repairs were made by foremen and filed as follows: John Dugan Newark; Carl Holm, Livermore; Wm. Day, Valencitos and E. R. Jensen, Palomares.

INSANE CASES.
Warden Page of the Insane Annex reported that he had cared for eight cases of insanity during March. Filed.

POLL TAXES.
Delinquent poll tax assessment was cancelled in the cases of J. E. Fischer, Stewart Irwin, Daniel O'Sullivan and Dugald McMillan.

SALOON PERMITS.
Application for saloon licenses were made by J. A. Bernard, Fernbrook Park, Niles; J. A. Easterday, Niles; F. de Freitas and M. S. Simas, Centerville; Nelson and Anderson, Honkiss street and Nuttville avenue; Chris. Warren, Ocean View. The applications were referred to the License Committee.

BALLOT BOXES.
The request of the Board of Education of Oakland for the use of twenty-one ballot boxes to be used at the school bond election April 23 was granted.

SEEKS RELIEF.
The application of Gustave Ralphe, native of Germany, fifty years of age, crippled, resident of Pleasanton was referred to Supervisor Horner.

SALOONS.
Lienor Licenses were granted to O. Fouchy of San Lorenzo and John Henningsen, Alvarado.

PRIMARY ELECTION.
The clerk was authorized to advertise the primary election which is to be held, May 3.

COUNTY HOSPITAL.
The report of Dr. Clark of the County Infirmary showed 322 patients at the present time. Adjourned.

THE NEW TREATMENT.

How Ex-Governor Peck Had His House Cleaned.
Ex-Governor Peck of Wisconsin, who is the author of "Peck's Bad Boy," after having his house cleaned by the compressed air process, wrote the following:

"I thought it was a sort of Christian Science treatment in which you had to have faith or it would be no good. When I looked on and saw the dirt pulled right through the carpet by the neck and landed out in the street, I was convinced that your compressed air method for dirt cure was worth a good deal. The cost is about the same as to have carpets ripped up and matted with a club and have the dust driven into your neighbor's windows, and by your method the householder can go down town and come home at night to a clean house. There are no hours to walk on, sounding like the end of the world. You don't have to eat in the kitchen for weeks. The women of the house don't have to wear towels around their heads and look sassy when you fall over a rocking chair and wake the baby."

Ladies who wish their homes cleaned by this sanitary process may call up the Compressed Air House Cleaning Co. Phone Main 707.

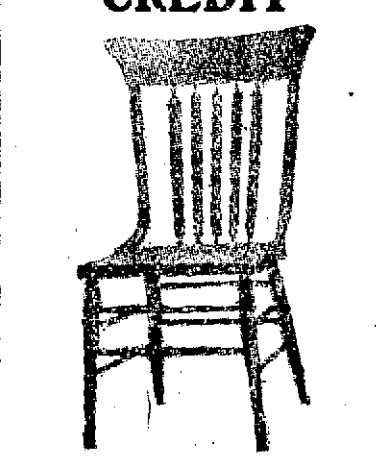

WILL CONSIDER BILLS SATURDAY.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—When the House met today it was ordered that bills relating to the District of Columbia which were to have been taken up today shall be considered on Saturday next.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the emergency river and harbor improvement bill, general debate being limited to three hours.

ARE PUSHING THE BOND SCHEME

RESOLUTION CALLING FOR ARCHITECT TO PREPARE NEW CITY HALL PLANS.

At tonight's meeting of the City Council there will be presented several resolutions embodying recommendations relating to the proposed bond issue. One of the important resolutions will be the one calling for the appointment of an architect to prepare plans for the erection of a new City Hall on the property on which the present building stands, together with a site to be purchased immediately adjoining. The ground and the structure will cost more than $500,000. It is the intention of the bond committee to make the proposed City Hall one of architectural beauty and an ornament to the city. The selection of the architect will naturally be an important matter.

Improvements calling for the improvements of the various parks will also be introduced. Plans and specifications, together with estimates of cost, will in all probability be prepared by the City Engineer on these matters. The Council will also call on the City Engineer to prepare estimates of cost and plans for all the sewer and street improvements contemplated under the bond.

MINERS IN CONVENTION.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 11.—Indiana bituminous miners assembled in convention with the operators in an effort to agree upon a scale. The joint committee is in session. The convention adjourned, pending an agreement in committee.

SENATOR HOAR'S SON DEAD.
CONCORD, Mass., April 11.—Samuel Hoar, a distinguished lawyer and nephew of United States Senator Geo. F. Hoar, died today of paralysis, aged 59 years.

ADJUTANT BELL IN AFRICANS HAVE CONTEMPT. BIG LOSS.

COLORADO JUDGE CRITICIZES GOVERNOR REGARDING MINE STRIKE.

OURAY, Colo., April 11.—District Judge Stevens today declared Adjutant-General Sherman M. Bell and Captain Bulkeley, who are in command of the troops at Telluride, to be in contempt for not complying with the writ of habeas corpus which required them to bring before the court today Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, whom they are holding in confinement at Telluride. The court ordered Sheriff Corbett to proceed to Telluride and arrest the two military officers and bring them before the court. Judge Stevens severely criticized the course of Governor Peabody and the military authorities, saying they appeared to be in insurrection against the courts.

Mr. Moyer was arrested on March 26 on a charge of sedition and when released under bonds several days later, he was immediately seized by the military authorities. General Bell said that the reason for holding Moyer was "military necessity."

JIMINEZ REACHES OTHMAN.
NEW YORK, April 11.—General Juan J. Jimenez, the Dominican rebel leader, who from the victorious forces of President Morales, arrived here today on the steamer Philadelphia from Venezuela and Porto Rico. Jimenez refused to make a statement concerning his intended movement in this country.

GOVERNOR OF GERMAN SOUTH-WEST AFRICA MAKES HIS REPORT.

BERLIN, April 11.—The Foreign dispatch from Colonel Letwin, the Office received today the following report of German Southwest Africa: "With the united principal division and the western division, I attacked the enemy's force, about 3,000 strong, at Onganja. The Hereros were in a strong semi-circular position on a hill fronting the northwest. We first flanked and forced back the enemy's left wing, and then attacked the center and right. Two energetic counterattacks of the enemy against our left were repulsed. The enemy's position was broken through at nightfall after eight hours' fighting and the enemy was driven back on all sides. The chief force apparently retired in a northeasterly and easterly direction. Our losses included Lieutenant Von Eberoff and Lieutenant Von Arffa and two cavalrymen killed; Lieutenant Rosenberg and five men seriously wounded and five men slightly wounded. The enemy's loss has not been ascertained but was heavy owing to the excellent effect of our artillery fire."

Nothing new from Van Glazen-app's eastern division.

We Paid $100,000

For Liquezone—Yet We Give You a 50c Bottle Free

This company, after testing liquezone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the American rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.

We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquezone. Men of our class don't pay a price like this save for a product of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs.
The reason for that price is this: Liquezone alone can kill germs in the body without killing the tissues too. Nothing else in the world is so good for the human body; yet Liquezone is a germicide that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1000 for a germ that it cannot kill.

Liquezone destroys at once and forever the cause of any germ disease. And there is no other way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is helpless in troubles of this kind.

Not Medicine
Liquezone is not made by compounding drugs. Its virtues are derived solely from gas made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and fourteen days' time, this gas is made part of the liquid product. Liquezone has for more than twenty years been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the very source of all vitality, the most essential element of life. Liquezone is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare. Its effects are exhilarating and purifying. But germs are vegetables; and Liquezone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.

Liquezone goes wherever the blood goes, destroying every germ in the body. In this way it cures diseases which medicine never cures. It will do more for sick humanity than all the drugs in the world combined.

Germ Diseases.
These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indistinct and uncertain. Liquezone kills the germs whatever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

A Real Church Triumph

Rev. G. Campbell Morgan is a divine of some eminence and a pulpit orator of note, but in lifting up his voice against evils he sometimes fiercely belabors a man of straw while Satan looks on and grins at the performance. Dr. Morgan's sermon in Los Angeles against Sunday papers is an illustration of his Quixotic penchant for fighting windmills. He said the Sunday newspaper was among the things which a Christian community ought to work to abolish.

Taking up the situation in London, England, the preacher told how the Christian people of that city had brought about the abolition of the Sunday newspaper, and rendered the issue of any periodical on the day of rest highly unpopular. Two of the great London dailies attempted, he said, to issue Sunday sheets, and the church people were aroused about what they considered a compromise with evil. It was arranged that every congregation in London should on a certain Sunday hear a sermon against the issuance of papers on the first day of the week, and from the cathedral to the Salvation Army headquarters this plan was carried into effect. The people with one accord determined to withdraw their patronage, and many advertisers refused to place advertisements with the Sunday sheets. The consequence was that in a short time one of the publications announced that in deference to public opinion it would cease the issuance of its Sunday number, and soon after this the others followed suit. There now are no Sunday papers in London, with the exception of two insignificant sheets that have no standing among the respectable part of the community.

What a triumph! It is extraordinary that the London churches did not unite in an organized effort to abolish drunkenness, prostitution and pauperism in London. London is the greatest moral sink-hole in Christendom. According to statistics recently compiled by the British government, one person in every eight inhabitants of London is a pauper and one woman out of every five a harlot. Although the public houses in the British metropolis are closed on the Sabbath the amount of drunkenness ordinarily witnessed on that day is appalling to an American. But the clergy view these scenes of crime, misery, debauchery, degradation and destitution as matters of course, but preach a holy crusade against the selling and reading of newspapers on Sunday. Their idea is that if a man who has been hard at work all the week is not permitted to read a newspaper, witness a cricket game or visit a public house on Sunday, he will go to church and read the bible. What he really does is to get drunk on Saturday night and beat his wife next morning. Too often his wife joins him in his drunken carousings, and too often his sons resort to crime and his daughters to the streets. That appears to be all right to men constituted like Dr. Morgan if the Sunday newspaper can only be abolished.

Professor Moses is inclined to think coeducation a failure because the feminine end of the co plundered his peach orchard to get flowers for decorative purposes. The boys wouldn't have done that, but they wouldn't do a thing to that orchard if the peaches were ripe. What effect does Professor Moses think stealing peaches has on coeducation?

General Kuropatkin seems to have adopted the tactics of the crawfish in his onward march to raise the Russian flag over Tokio.

It is astonishing what a lot of news as is news about Alameda county politics one finds in the San Francisco papers. Most of it reads as if it were written by the war correspondents in the Orient.

A Display of Canadian Loyalty

An outburst of loyalty has been provoked in the Canadian Parliament by the proposal of the Ministry to repeal the clause of the militia act which requires the force to be commanded by "a colonel or superior officer" in the regular imperial service. This proposition was assailed as nothing less than an attempt to completely sever the political bands uniting the Dominion with Great Britain. Many speeches charged with loyalty to the British were delivered, all to the purpose of proving that Canada will prove a desire to bring about complete separation by placing the command of her militia in the hands of her own citizens.

On this side the line the dispute has an amusing cast. Canada pays for the maintenance of her militia force, and her people are subjects of the British Crown. It seems like a reflection on Canadian loyalty to question the fitness of a citizen of Canada to command the militia of the Dominion. It would appear that the ultra loyalists of Canada are assuming an attitude that questions their own manhood and good faith. Why should a citizen of Canada appointed by the Canadian Ministry or the Governor-General be less loyal or less competent than a Briton sent over from the Horse Guards in London? In this country each State in the Union nominates the officers to command its militia, but nobody has ever thought that implied any disloyalty to the Republic. It is properly assumed that all American citizens are equally loyal, and that all have an equal right to aspire to and hold office. The officer in command of the State's militia is not a person of great power and is seldom a man of considerable political influence.

But Great Britain has always relegated the citizens of her colonies to a position of inferiority. Although the Canadian, Australian and New Zealand contingents performed admirably the best service during the South African war, "the colonials," as they were called, were treated as inferior to the British regulars and volunteers. A bell corner of the line was considered as a person of higher rank than a major or colonel of colonial troops. This engendered a bitter feeling in the ranks of the colonials, especially the Canadians, but apparently they have forgotten or forgiven the snubs they received, or are inclined to accept the position of implied inferiority in which they are placed by British policy. At any rate, there is a violent "loyal" protest against allowing a Canadian officer to command the Canadian militia.

But this is only one of the recent instances that a violent spasm is agitating public sentiment in the Dominion. The tone of the press and the parliamentary debates clearly indicate this, and at the same time reflects a growing hostility to the United States, mainly because of the result of the Alaskan boundary arbitration. Doubtless the feeling will pass away in time, for a mutual interest binds this country and Canada in a bond of sympathy too strong to be wrenched asunder by trifles.

Senator Foraker's eulogy of Senator Hanna was eloquent and truthful, but it will not prevent Foraker from making war on Hanna's friends and political supporters.

Professor Moses on Coeducation

The views of Professor Benard Moses on coeducation may be valuable—they may even be correct—but it does not follow that they are history or that they have any historical application. They can hardly, by even a stretch of courtesy, be termed lessons in history. Expressed to a mixed class in history during the course of a lecture they savor of impertinence. Even the charge that the young ladies of the Sorority decorated their rooms with blossoms rifed from his peach orchard, a charge now proved to be groundless, is an insufficient justification for the venting of crabbed, ill-natured personal opinions on a matter which Professor Moses has no call to decide and in a place where such expression is a gratuitous display of bad taste and ill humor.

Under the law the State University is a coeducational institution; women have the same right to participate in the advantages it affords as men. Professor Moses is paid to instruct his classes in such branches of knowledge as he is supposed to be competent to impart instruction in, not to give vent to his personal theories as to the wisdom of the system the law has prescribed. If he wishes to vent such theories he has a perfect right to do so outside the classroom and apart from the duties which he is paid for performing. He has no right whatever to inflict his personal views on a matter of State policy under the guise of giving instruction. His language reflected on the mental and moral qualifications of the women students at the University, and his charges were based on a personal grievance. The intervention of private griefs and his personal opinions was not only out of place but distinctly irrelevant, immaterial and impertinent, as the lawyers would say. If Professor Moses does not like the system of coeducation he had better go to some institution where it does not prevail; but if he prefers to stay where he is he had better conform to the requirements of the system even if he be indisposed to conform to the usages usually deemed indispensable in the conduct of gentlemen.

Furthermore, the habit of insulting women students at the University is becoming altogether too common. The practice of making derogatory flings at women in the classrooms is one that calls for salutary rebuke. It seems to spring from a desire to drive women out of the University by making lectures so disagreeable and so wounding to their self respect that they will voluntarily abandon the rights and privileges conferred upon them by the law. A man may be an ass and yet have the instincts of a gentleman and conduct himself after the manner of gentlemen, but some college professors appear to think their vocation absolves them from the observance of those gentle arts of courtesy which superficially distinguish the savage from the civilized man, the cad from the gentleman. Even a man reared in the bullrushes can acquire the manners of a gentleman although their practice may be irksome to him. Professor Moses should make the effort.

Congressman Cowherd will prove himself an expert indeed if he succeeds in herding all the Democrats into one corral.

Perhaps it would not be amiss if the police were to make a few arrests for violations of the bicycle and speeding ordinances—just to test the constitutionality of those enactments.

LET US MIND OUR OWN BUSINESS.

The OAKLAND TRIBUNE makes a timely point when it declares that the action of certain societies bearing foreign names in passing resolutions of advice as to the policy the Administration should pursue is strangely out of place. For instance, when an organization denounces the proposal to establish a board of arbitration for the settlement of difficulties between this country and Great Britain as an "entanglement," and calls on the ghost of George Washington to denounce such a peaceful policy, it is about time to ask who is running this government, anyway. European animosities and prejudices should have no influence on our national policy and a really patriotic adopted citizen will acknowledge this just as quick as the one born in this fair land.—Stockton Record.

Hints for the Ladies.

Always keep your celery roots and dry them. They are good for seasoning soups and sauces.

An attractive way to prepare macaroni au gratin is to bake the macaroni in a shell of Eddam cheese.

If the bread knife is hot, new bread can be cut as easily as old. But, if you would not spoil your knife, do not make it too hot.

After rice or macaroni is cooked, place in a colander and drain off the water, then quickly turn cold water through and you will find that the stickiness which is so undesirable will be prevented.

One reason that an omelet is so often a failure is the use of too many eggs. The more eggs the more difficult the matter of turning and folding. Four eggs are all that should ever be used at one time.

A good general rule always to remember in the use of gelatin is to soften the gelatin in cold water, then to dissolve in boiling water. Neglect of either part of the process cause trouble in making jellies.

The coffee pot should be washed as regularly as other cooking utensils, but should not be put into the water in which other dishes have been washed. It should be cleaned with fresh, hot water without soap, and then thoroughly scalded.

To cook fish in water do not boil it. Plunge the fish into the boiling water to seal the surface and retain the juices, then reduce the heat, so as to keep the water below the boiling point—180 degrees Fahrenheit is the desired temperature if one uses a thermometer in cooking.

Tinware can be kept bright indefinitely if it is washed in soap suds, to which a few bits of washing soda have been added, and placed for a few seconds either on the stove or in the sun after being wiped lightly with the dish cloth. When warmed through it should be dried with a domet flannel towel.

Glasses which have been used for milk or eggs should never be plunged in hot water. Immediately after using fill with cold water and allow them to stand. Next wash with lukewarm water, then in hot suds, and rinse. The result, especially if linen toweling be used, will be glassware that sparkles as if it were out.

To cleanse a gateware put the ware on the stove filled with water and into the water put a tablespoon of sal soda (washing soda) and then after a while use a scouring soap and you will be pleased with the result. Also put your bean pot on the stove and a good generous tablespoonful of soda and it will wash as easily as a cup. A little soda put in your greasy baking pans and keeping them warm while washing your other dishes will help along that most disagreeable task.

A cloak of yellow chiffon velour has a picture-like cape consisting of three shades of orange chiffon, edged with mink, and lined with a dull bronze-green accordion-plaited chiffon. Needless to say, this emanated from a famous Parisian atelier. With a few alterations it might be made into a most useful wrap. In itself it was perhaps a little gorgeous for the average woman.

Royal purple is one of the most appropriate shades for combined day and evening wear. It is not a color that can be worn by all, but with those who can wear it it is worthy of consideration. A glorious mixture is composed of purple and a peculiar shade of bright pink; strange as it may sound, this is really a becoming combination when softened by lace and can be worn by many who cannot wear purple alone.

There is a revival of patterned zennas—not quite the stuff used for dressing gowns, but a kind of mixture of crepon and silk. These are very effective for evening wraps, lined with some brilliant color. A white-green ground, for instance, is covered with red and purple flowers; made up into a cloak this could be lined with the shades that best suit the wearer and trimmed with heavy lace. There is a brilliancy about this curious fabric at night which makes a pleasing change in the way of evening wraps, though the most gorgeous sea of chiffon velours lined with gold brocades trimmed with the Marie Antoinette ruche and further draped with lace and fur.

QUESTIONS FOR THE TRANSIT.

"T" Rails are Used in Violation of Law.

Editor TRIBUNE: The Oakland Transit Consolidated has renewed its application for a street railroad franchise on East Fourteenth street, between First and Twelfth avenues, which was temporarily withdrawn on account of a very strong protest presented by property owners.

Now, while we think reasonable requests of street railroad companies, that are not detrimental to property owners, should be favorably considered, there are some questions we would like to ask this corporation.

Is it not your intention to run electric trains of cars to Hayward and San Jose along this street if you get the franchise?

If not, why is it that, contrary to State law, city charter and ordinances, you have laid heavy T rails on Twelfth street, across the Twelfth street dam and on Twelfth street from Oak street to Harrison, and are you not intending to lay similar rails on the Fourth avenue line, with which the Fourteenth street tracks are to connect?

The city charter requires that only such rails shall be laid down as are of the most approved flatiron pattern. City ordinances provides that all tracks to be laid for any street railroad in the city of Oakland shall be constructed of standard rails of the most approved patterns, and so as to prevent the least possible obstruction to travel and crossing of vehicles.

Is it not a fact that the most approved form of street rails is the grooved rail, or the flat rail, and that in no city is the T rail permitted to be used for street railroad purposes?

Is it not a fact also that no previous Council of this city has ever heretofore permitted T rails to be used on street railroads?

As you now have franchises on East Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Sixteenth, Eighteenth, as well as portion of Fourteenth streets, why is it that you want to appropriate still another street?

We don't see the necessity unless you are trying to monopolize the approach to the Twelfth street dam, so that no other company can hereafter get a franchise, or to bar out the city itself in case it should choose later on to take up municipal operation of street railroads, as is now being favorably contemplated in Chicago and some other Eastern cities, as well as in San Francisco, and which may in a few years be adopted.

If you get this franchise there will be no street left unobstructed for carriage travel approaching the eastern end of Twelfth street dam.

In truth, there is no necessity for a franchise on East Fourteenth street, between First and Twelfth avenues, and that it would be detrimental to our property interests, especially if you should run trains of cars, as you could do, and we fear would do, and we don't want all of our streets obstructed by railroad tracks, we don't think the City Council would be doing the right thing to grant you a franchise in the face of our protest, or in permitting you to lay T rails on the Twelfth street dam or the streets approaching it.

EAST FOURTEENTH STREET.

NAVAL NOTES.

One of the earliest suggestions of the submarine was that of a British smuggler, Johnson, who invented a boat that was to travel under or above water. With this vessel he proposed to carry Napoleon from St. Helena, but the emperor died while the boat was under construction. The adherents of the emperor promised Johnson $200,000 on the day the boat was ready to start and an immense sum if it proved successful. Some years later Johnson built a boat with which he experimented in the Thames for the British admiralty. In this connection it may be mentioned that one of Napoleon's marshals, Massena, began life as a smuggler on a large scale, and Commodore Thurst of the French navy of that time obtained his knowledge of the British coast while in the employ of a smuggler.

Russia's navy had its origin in a boat which Queen Elizabeth sent to Ivan the Terrible, and with which later Peter the Great got the "sea craze." Japan's first European type of ship was built by Denmark, however, did most of the training of the officers of Japan's modern fleet. Some of them, as is well known, were trained in the United States.

That Russian stranded battleship Retovian, which has figured so prominently in the news from Port Arthur, is called after a Swedish battleship of sixty-four guns which was captured by the Russians at the battle of Viborg in 1790. The word Retivian means "bathe."

CALL FOR REV. SEALION CATCHES A MONKEY.

HE MAY GO TO PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN PHILADELPHIA.

DENVER, April 11.—It is with surprise that members of the Central Presbyterian Church have learned that their pastor, Rev. Dr. Robert F. Coyle, formerly of Oakland, has received a call to the largest and wealthiest Presbyterian Church in the East, and that he is seriously considering acceptance. This is the First Church of Philadelphia, the "Old First," as it is affectionately known among residents of that city, for it is not only one of the oldest churches there, but also one of the oldest churches of this denomination in the country. The call was received by Dr. Coyle about a week ago and he has laid the matter before the officers of the church. It is understood no definite decision has been reached, either by Dr. Coyle or the board, but as the offer is a most flattering one, there is a probability that it will be accepted.

DR. WILL DUNN WAS ON SCENE.

William Snow, an employee of the E. B. and A. L. Stone Company was run over by an engine of the Santa Fe line yesterday afternoon and suffered such injury that it was necessary to have his right leg amputated below the knee.

The accident occurred between the subway and San Pablo avenue when Snow was attempting to board a flat car which was being shunted by the engine. Snow missed his footing, and fell under the engine.

The engineer saw his predicament and brought the engine to a standstill but not until one of the wheels had passed over his foot.

Dr. W. L. Dunn chanced to be driving by the track at the time and after stopping the flow of blood took the man to the Pashley Hospital where he amputated the foot. Snow has for some time been employed by the Stone Company.

SANTA FE DAY UNION LABOR IS CHANGED. NEWS.

NEW ROAD WILL NOT BE OPENED UNTIL MAY FIFTEENTH.

The following letter speaks for itself: "Oakland, Cal., April 1, 1904. "Mr. M. J. Keller, 1157 Washington street, Oakland Cal., Dear Sir:—I am just in receipt of a letter from Mr. M. A. Russell, Assistant Traffic Manager, San Francisco, requesting me to notify you that he has been advised by Mr. A. G. Wells, General Manager, Los Angeles, that the Oakland & East Side Railroad will not open for operation on May 1 as had been hoped and that date is now set for May 15. "General Manager Wells explains that the extreme wet weather has so interfered with construction operations as to make this postponement necessary. Yours truly, "J. J. WARNER, "Commercial Agent. "LOS ANGELES, April 8, 1904. "Mr. Edwin Stearns, Secretary, Oakland Board of Trade, No. 522 Twelfth street, Oakland, California. "Dear Sir:—Captain Payson has told me of your call upon him, and directing attention to the fact that the first day of May falls on Sunday. We had hoped to be able to open our line into Oakland on the first of May, and had that program possibly had been carried out, we would have postponed the date until the 2nd, but the long continued rains have interfered with the construction work. We have decided to open on the 15th of May, which, I observe, also falls on Sunday; hence, we will call it the 16th inst., and if anything arises to change our plans, I will let you know. Yours truly, "A. G. WELLS, General Manager."

It will be noted that the latter letter is dated on April 8th or a day after the letter written to Mr. Keller and in answer to a letter sent by Captain Payson to Mr. Wells. Thomas H. Williams, president of the New California Jockey Club, has offered to the Oakland Board of Trade and the committee having in charge the preparations for Santa Fe day, the free use of the race track for that day. "When it was first thought the Santa Fe would come in on May 2nd, most of the aliens even went as far as to offer the committee the use of the race track on that date, despite the fact that races were scheduled for May 2nd and 3rd. The committee would mean the loss to Mr. Williams of many hundreds of dollars. The committee appreciate this generosity on the part of President Williams and the trust the citizens of Oakland and Alameda county—for all Alameda county is certainly interested in the inauguration of the new transcontinental railroad—will profit by the example of Mr. Williams and do all in their power to make Santa Fe day a grand success. The committee are very anxious to have a beautiful floral parade inside the park or race track on May 16 and would respectfully urge upon all citizens who will decorate a vehicle with flowers on that day to notify the secretary of the Santa Fe day committee at No. 522 Twelfth street, as early as possible of the style of vehicle they will have in the parade.

The committee is also anxious to have representatives of the athletic clubs and colleges in this vicinity in the exhibition of athletic sports. There will be absolutely no admission fee to the park, and everything will be free. Prizes will be awarded to the best decorated vehicles in each class and to the winners of the sports.

PROHIBITION WOMEN RESOLVE. At the last meeting of the Women's Prohibition Club the question of the rapidly increasing immorality of the nation and its relation to the liquor traffic was presented and thoroughly discussed. The following resolution was adopted: "Since we are aware of the fact that human vices are spread in the most rapid manner, and that they are spreading to other lands, seeking to decay and entrap unsuspecting and innocent girls, to ruin the lives of the nation, and to bring dishonor to the name of our country, we, the women of this city, resolve that we will do our utmost to prevent the spread of these vices, and to bring about a more wholesome and virtuous life for the nation. We will also do our utmost to prevent the spread of these vices, and to bring about a more wholesome and virtuous life for the nation. We will also do our utmost to prevent the spread of these vices, and to bring about a more wholesome and virtuous life for the nation.

REAL ESTATE MEN. The Oakland Real Estate Association held its regular meeting Saturday night at the Hotel Metropole. The bond issue was the principal subject of discussion. A committee was appointed to consult with the Grocers' Retail Association of this county to plan for a day to be spent in Alameda county. The bond issue was the principal subject of discussion. ARMY TRIALS. An Infantryman's Long Siege.

This soldier's tale of food is interesting. During his term of service in the 17th Infantry in Cuba and the Philippines, an Ohio soldier boy contracted a disease of the stomach and bowels which all army doctors who treated him pronounced incurable, but which Grape-Nuts food alone cured. "In October, 1899, when my enlistment expired, I was discharged from the Army at Calicut, Philippines, and returned to the States on the first available steamer that left Manila. When I got home I was a total wreck physically and my doctor put me to bed saying he considered me the worst broken-down man of my age he ever saw and after treating me six months he considered my case beyond medical aid.

"During the fall and winter of 1900 and '01 I was admitted to the Barnes Hospital in Washington D. C. for treatment for chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels but after five months returned home as bad as ever. I continued taking medicine until February, 1902, when I bought a paper one day I read about Grape-Nuts and was so impressed I sent out for a package right away. "The result is quickly told for I have used Grape-Nuts continually ever since with the best results, my health is so I can do a fair day's hard work, stomach and bowels are in good condition, have gained 40 pounds in weight and I feel like a new man altogether. I owe my present good health to Grape-Nuts beyond all doubt for medical science was exhausted. Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Michigan. "I have consulted any one of several thousand physicians who know of them would have prescribed Grape-Nuts immediately. Look in each package for the famous little book 'The Road to Wellville.'

WEST OAKLAND FURNITURE FACTORY WILL UNDERGO INVESTIGATION.

There will be an investigation of the charge that the West Berkeley Furniture Factory is trying to establish a nine-hour work day at the suggestion of the State Building Trades' Council. The matter will be taken up by the Carpenters' Councils of San Francisco and Oakland.

The factor is now closed down and it is claimed that the mill will start up again with members of the Alameda Food Workers of America. It is claimed that the Food Workers will work a nine-hour day for $7.50.

INDORSED BY CARPENTERS. Carpenters' Union No. 10 has indorsed the proposition of having officers of the State Federation of Labor resign on being elected or appointed to a political office.

The union decided at its last meeting to advance the dues to 75 cents a month. A resolution was before the meeting to suspend all benefits for six months. After the matter was fully discussed the resolution was defeated.

An assessment of 10 cents per member was levied for the locked out butchers.

RELATIONSHIP IMPROVED. ABRAHAMSON'S

OAKLAND'S MOST POPULAR STORE

A History-Making Sale in Handkerchiefs Wednesday

This Handkerchief Sale will certainly go down in the history of this store as the greatest event of its kind on the Coast.

It is unnecessary to refer to the phenomenal success of our celebrated Notion and Lace Sale when the crowds more than demonstrated their approval and saving of Abrahamson's unequalled sales.

Wednesday the prices on thousands of handkerchiefs will create a furore. It will be record breaking value—no talk—just values. The lady, gentleman, or child who will take advantage of these special prices Wednesday will get values in handkerchiefs never offered at such particularly special prices as these—Wait for it. Inquire about it.

BELLTOWER IS COMPLETED.

"EL CAMPANIL" AT MILLS' COLLEGE TO BE DEDICATED THURSDAY.

The bell tower at Mills College has been completed and everything is now in readiness for the dedication of "El Campanil," the gift of Mr. and Mrs. F. Marion Smith to the college, which will take place at 2:30 o'clock next Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Charles R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church, will officiate, assisted by the president of the Board of Trustees of the College. The chimes will be played by W. A. Sabin of San Francisco. Admission to the grounds will be by invitation only, but hundreds of cards will be sent out by Mrs. Mills. Many prominent men from Oakland and San Francisco will be present on that occasion and deliver addresses.

The tower was designed by Miss Julia Morgan of Berkeley and is built after the old Spanish style of architecture, its walls being of whiplash concrete. Ten chimes, the gift of David Hewes, are installed in apertures visible only from the front of a structure. They are the bells that chimed at the World's Fair in Chicago and the Midwinter Fair in San Francisco, and upon the suggestion of Mrs. Mills they have been inscribed separately with the words Faith, Hope, Charity, Peace, Love, Long Suffering, Meekness, Gentleness, Kindness and Truth—representing the graces of the spirit. The largest of these, bearing the word "Love," weighs just 2500 pounds.

A large clock dial surmounts the front of the building at an elevation of sixty feet, and from the mechanism of the clock itself the chime keyboard is automatically operated. The chimes are rung at every quarter of an hour, and on the hour the Westminster chimes toll.

"El Campanil" is seventy-four feet in height, and is built on a solid foundation of concrete. A balcony surrounds the four walls near the base. All the woodwork is in rustic finish, huge members supporting the awning over the door. The tower is set at the edge of a grove of trees and faces the main college building from across a broad expanse of lawn.

FRANK COOLEY AT THE MACDONOUGH.

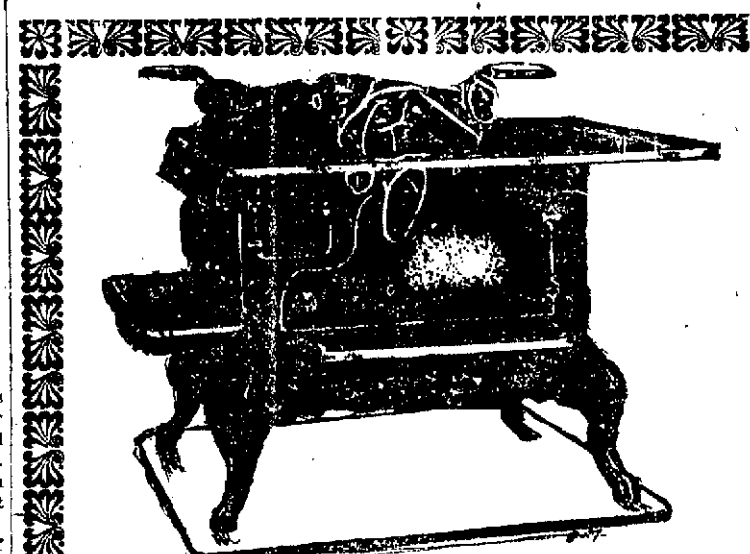

This evening Frank Cooley and company will present the charming Southern comedy, "A Daughter of Dixie," a story of the land of cotton at the Macdonough Theatre.

A pretty story of the love and adventures of George Hardy, a young Chicago boy, whose life has been devoted to following the races, and a rich man's son and the latter in return secures him a position and a home. Hardy begins a new life and advances rapidly. His racy slang clings to him, however, and his mode of expression is pointed and humorous. Frank Cooley as Hardy furnishes a quaint character and with his droll way and bright witticisms keeps the audience fairly convulsed with laughter.

Glady's Kingsbury, the leading lady, is a talented young actress whose beauty and talent have caused her to rise in her profession and a bright future is predicted for her.

"A Daughter of Dixie" will run for three nights. Clever specialties are interwoven and a pleasing performance is assured.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings the laughable comedy, "A Bachelor's Honeymoon" will be presented and on Saturday afternoon, "Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn" will be the bill. The engagement will come to a close Sunday night with a great production of the great comedy drama,

ANNA HEID.

The sensation caused here last year by Anna Heid, her "Sally Girls" and the production of "The Little Duchess" promises to be eclipsed a week from tonight and tomorrow night when the magnetic little French woman, her "A la Mode Girls" and the gorgeous presentation of "Mam'selle Napoleon" will hold the attention of theatre-goers at the Macdonough Theatre. Thousands expended upon this musical play and a revelation is promised in the way of costuming and scenic equipment. The piece is in four acts and five tableaux, and from what can be learned of the attraction it is sure to create a positive furore as Gustav Lunders, who is remembered for his "Prince of Pilsen" and "King Dodo" has prepared the music for "Mam'selle Napoleon." The sale of seats opened this morning.

OSGOOD'S PLAIN TALK

Recently a prominent drug store in San Francisco used a full page of a paper to tell the public how they were cutting the prices of goods.

And there was not a single article mentioned at a lower price than our goods are marked.

It has always been so with us. We have always cut prices and always will. No organization can say to us that we shall not cut below a certain figure. We cut just as low as we please and no firm cuts deeper than we do.

In our new store soon to be opened at Twelfth and Washington, the same principle will be followed as at our old store.

CLUB TO PRESENT WEEK OF UNUSUAL INTEREST AT UNIVERSITY. PLAY. ALREADY AT WORK ON BOOK. YOUTH SHOOT COMPANION TARDY WILL HAVE TO PAY. ON BERKELEY HILLS. RESULTS FATALLY. LIBRARIAN ROWELL INAUGURATES STRICT RULES AT UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

FRENCH STUDENT AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY WILL PRODUCE "GRAMMAIRE."

BERKELEY, April 11.—The French Club of the University will compete its first term's work by a reception to be held at Hearst Hall on the night of April 19th. A French program has been arranged consisting of songs and recitations and a farce entitled "Grammaire," which is a production by the noted French playwright, Labiche. The play is marked by witty sayings and clever dialogue, and is full of hits on pedantry. It is a travesty upon the provincial academics of France and abounds in local color.

The cast of the farce will include Alfred Solomon of the French department, Miss Beulah Hook, Walter DeLeon, W. C. Martin and A. C. Keane. Mr. Solomon has full charge of directing the cast. The first rehearsal has already been held.

The latter part of the evening will be given over to an informal reception and dancing.

Each member is allowed twenty invitations and members of the faculty of the French department will be guests of honor. A general committee consisting of J. W. Bingham, president of the club; A. Solomon, F. C. McInnis and Misses Edna Hainspahr, Hazel Hobson, Eda Reichenbach, Neil Villa and Phoebe Binney are in charge of the affair.

ANNOUNCE ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS.

BERKELEY, April 10.—The schedule of final examinations which will mark the close of the spring term at the University have been announced. They will begin on Thursday, May 5, at 8 o'clock, and will close on Saturday, May 14.

THE STRIKE BREAKING.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The strike on the Panama Railroad seems to be giving way, owing, cables the Herald correspondent at Panama to the Company bringing over about fifty Fortune Island men from Colon and the expectation that more laborers will arrive from New York on the Steamer due Tuesday.

The Isthmian Canal Commission has visited the Georgian section of the canal and will ascend the Chagres river where the bold canal company planned a great dam to feed the locks.

Extraordinary Program of Happenings Scheduled to Take Place at the State University.

BERKELEY, April 11.—A meeting of the Regents, a concert by the Glee Club, the election of the officers of the Associated Students, examinations for the Rhodes scholarship, the Fryntan "Kirmess," an excursion to Mt. Hamilton, and a large University meeting are among the events that will go to make up a busy week in University circles.

This after a paper was read by Professor F. W. Bader on "The I of the Psalms," before the Semitic Seminar. Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, Astronomer W. J. Hussey will give another of his public lectures at the Students' Observatory. His subject will be "Possible Observations in the Southwestern Part of the United States." Tuesday afternoon the Board of Regents will convene at Mark Hopkins Institute of Art in San Francisco.

The executive committee of the Associated Students will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Bachelordom Clubhouse. At 8 o'clock the Senate Debating Society will hold an election of officers and a debate in Stiles Hall. Tuesday night at 8 o'clock the musical clubs of the University will give a concert at Harmon gymnasium for the benefit of the clubs' trip to St. Louis.

On Wednesday, from 9 o'clock in the morning to 5 o'clock in the evening, the Associated Students will hold their much-looked-for election. Wednesday morning the examinations for the Cecil Rhodes scholarship will be commenced at the library. From 4 to 5 o'clock the Chemistry Fields will hold a reception in the Chemistry Building. The sophomore men will tender a reception to the sophomore women in Reed Hall, Oakland, at 8 o'clock, on Wednesday evening.

Another lecture by Astronomer W. J. Hussey will be given in the Students' Observatory on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The subject will be "Search for Good Being in Australia." The men of the senior class will sing on North Hall steps at 7:15 o'clock. The members of the Fryntan Society will hold a "Kirmess" in Co-ed canyon. On Friday the class in modern astronomy will leave for an excursion to Mt. Hamilton. At the University meeting to be held Friday morning in Harmon gymnasium Dr. Lyman Abbott, the editor of the Outlook, and Alvord Cooley, Commissioner of the United States Civil Service, will speak. Edward Berkeley, president of the California Postal Progress League, will give an address before the Agricultural Club at 11 o'clock in the morning. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon Alvord Cooley will speak at the Students' Observatory on "Civil Service Reform." The San Francisco Young Men's Christian Association basketball team will play the California team in Harmon gymnasium at 8 o'clock.

The development of Egyptian Religion will be the subject of an address to be given by Dr. George Steinhardt, the famous Egyptologist, at Hearst Hall, at 8 o'clock, Friday night.

Saturday morning the intercollegiate tennis tournament between California and Stanford will take place at Palo Alto and the intercollegiate field day will occur in the afternoon.

Next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock a half hour of chamber music will be rendered in the Greek Theater by J. Ray Williams, violin; Arthur Weiss, violincello, and Albert Elkus, piano.

PERSONAL NOTES FROM UNIVERSITY CAMPUS.

BERKELEY, April 11.—Miss Rebecca Cerf and Miss Maude Wildes were about the campus recently.

Mr. Sharwood of the chemistry department, who was assaulted on the street last week, will be able to be around the campus in a few days. Although he received a severe blow on the head he is not seriously hurt.

H. P. Chandler, principal of a grammar school in San Diego, has recently been appointed principal of San Diego High School. In addition to this he is preparing a book on botany in San Diego county for use in public schools.

Frank K. Kierce, grand president of the Young Men's Institute, addressed the Youngman Club at its regular bi-weekly meeting Friday.

LARGE STAFF IS NAMED FOR THE 1906 BLUE AND GOLD.

BERKELEY, April 11.—Although the 1906 Blue and Gold lacks two weeks of issuance, work has already been commenced on the 1906 year of the student of the University of California. The sub-editors who have been named to assist with the book are:

Literary—C. C. Clossack, Miss Olga Von Reppert, Miss Isabel McRynolds. Debating—William Andrews, S. M. Evans. Journalism—S. Hellman, E. Blackman. University—B. Norton, Miss Kate O'Neill, Miss Sue Root, L. Elkus. Art—George H. S. Jewett, H. E. Squire. Miss Sue Butting. College Year—V. A. McWhinnery, Miss Bertha Crawford, Miss Mary Van Orden, E. J. Beermann, George O. Brown. Dramatics—J. S. Kofor, Miss Anne Thatcher, E. S. Rust. Photography—Miss Phoebe Binney, Miss Gertrude B. Burris, Miss Florence Ward. Clubs—William Kelly, Miss Sophie Treadwell, Miss Hilda Smyth, H. H. Saltz, W. R. Layne. Next year's staff will be announced. The head of each department is a chairman who is directly responsible for the work done under him. Everyone will of course do as much work outside of particular department as is possible and in the end all will be able to point to some definite work of their own.

All events are being covered as they happen. The Pomona trail meet the two games of baseball with Stanford, and the intercollegiate regattas have all been worked up, and at the end of this semester everything that has been planned for the year should be ready to go to the printer. At the close of next term all events of the first half year will also be written up and ready for the press.

The class assessment will be levied at the beginning of college in August and every student will be given a list of duties. All staff men will be required to pay such incidental expenses as street car fares, and so on, out of their own pockets. Considering the harm that exists between the talent of the class and the editor, there is no reason why the 1906 Blue and Gold should not be a very successful publication. Work has already begun, and by carrying it on systematically, the editor and manager can advise staff members not to take too much college work in their junior year.

Target Practice at a Demijohn From Which Boys Had Imbibed Results Fatally.

BERKELEY, April 10.—A hunting trip of two San Francisco boys had a fatal termination in the Berkeley hills yesterday afternoon, when Edward Lauritano shot and killed his companion, John Valenti. At the time of the accident the youths were shooting at a demijohn from which the boys had been drinking wine. The boys left the city early Sunday morning with their rifles and a half-gallon demijohn of red wine. They traveled as far as the Curran ranch over the hills, where they met two Berkeley lads, Frank L. Serlauer and Carl Miller, of 1809 Euclid avenue. The two Italian boys had been drinking the wine, but the Berkeley boys say they were not intoxicated. The Berkeley deputy coroner, after examining Lauritano, is inclined to believe that the liquor was the cause of their extreme recklessness in their hunting. No precautions in their use of the weapons.

The accident happened while the two lads were arguing about shooting at the demijohn, which they had set up for a target. Lauritano had the rifle in his hands and was aiming at the bottle when Valenti, who was standing next to him, stepped forward and pressed him back to a greater distance from the target. They were thus engaged, they climbed over a mound and Lauritano, with the gun pointed directly at Valenti's left breast, accidentally pulled the trigger, on which he had his finger clung, and the shot came. The shot took its instant effect and the unfortunate lad fell dying. He kept his consciousness until the end, which came shortly before 6 o'clock. The body was taken to the Blanch Morgue by George Stutz of Dwight street. The inquest has been set for Wednesday evening.

Neighbors of the dead lad came over to Berkeley this evening at the request of Dwight Stutz. They identified the boy and spoke regretfully of his end, saying that his friends had repeatedly remonstrated with him about his hunting trips. It being feared that his carelessness would result in a tragedy.

READY FOR RHODES EXAMINATIONS.

BERKELEY, April 10.—The definite schedule for the Rhodes scholarship examination has been announced. There will be six examinations, given from 8 to 10 a. m. from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m., April 13 and 14, in Seminary Room "R" of the library. The order of subjects is as follows: Latin Prose Composition; Greek and Latin Prose Composition; Algebra or Geometry; Translation from Greek into English.

Seven applicants for the Rhodes scholarship will take this examination. The examination papers will be corrected at Oxford. From among the number who are successful in passing this examination the Oxford scholar from California will be selected by President Wheeler. The successful candidate will be entitled to enter Oxford without examination for the academic year 1903-1904. The scholarship, a monetary advantage of, may continue for three years.

LIBRARIAN ROWELL INAUGURATES STRICT RULES AT UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

BERKELEY, April 11.—On account of the approaching examinations the rules regarding the borrowing of books from the University library will from now on to the end of the term be stringently enforced. Librarian Rowell has announced that heavy fines will be levied for overdue books. Such fines will amount to at least $1 a day for each book, or even more.

The librarian is forced to adopt this course owing to the negligence, willful or otherwise, which has heretofore prevailed prior to the examination period and which has frequently deprived students of the use of "reserved books" at the most crucial times of University work. In addition to the fines such other measures as may be considered expedient will be taken according to the gravity of the offense.

FRATERNITY MAN WEDS IN ASTORIA.

BERKELEY, April 10.—A very pretty wedding took place in Astoria Saturday, when Miss Essie Rosa became the wife of Ernest S. Page of this city. The engagement of the newly married young couple was kept secret from all except a few intimate friends until Thursday, when Mr. Page left on the morning train to meet his bride at her house in Astoria.

Mr. Page is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Page of 2240 Chapel street. They are prominent citizens and have a large circle of acquaintances. He is a graduate of Stanford University with the class of 1900, and also received the degree of M. A. in law at the same college in 1901. While at college Mr. Page took an active part in college life. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, and also of the Phi Kappa Phi society. He is a practicing attorney in Oakland.

The bride, Miss Essie Rosa, is also a Stanford graduate. She is very beautiful and pleasing, possessing high literary talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Page will spend their honeymoon in Oregon, after which they will return to Berkeley, making their future home at 2429 Stuart street.

ATTEMPT TO ASSAULT AND KIDNAP EDITOR.

PUEBLO, Colo., April 11.—Sensational developments are expected in the attempted kidnapping and assault of Charles Demott, the editor of the Italian paper, suppressed by order of the Italian government, the military in Southern Colorado coal fields, where a strike is now on. It develops that Demott was attacked by six men after they had tried to force him into a hack. Demott asserts that he recognized two of them as professional thugs. The police have secured evidence that the plot was directed by a man named Pagnini, formerly of Utah, and the six men have since disappeared. All surrounding cities have been notified to watch for the assailants and minute descriptions have been furnished the police authorities.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER.

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see anyone trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germ which causes it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

UNIVERSITY CLUB OPENS WITH JINKS.

BERKELEY, April 11.—More than 350 graduates and officers of the University gathered at the opening of the University of California Club in San Francisco last Friday night. It was an event memorable for hearty college spirit.

A. G. Cloud, member of the board of directors, introduced Rev. Charles H. Wheeler, who stated the purpose of the club to be "real thought for the University of California and its welfare. A centralizing force for college spirit." Professor H. Morse Stephens declared its work to be similar to its own, that of "extending the University though, perhaps, in a more centralized district."

HAYWARDS CHURCH HAS ADVANCED DURING THE PAST YEAR.

HAYWARDS, April 11.—The annual business meeting of the members of the Haywards Church was held Friday evening in the church. The report of the church and the societies connected with it show great progress. The church has progressed during the past year on account of the energetic work of Dr. Lyons.

THE LADIES OF THE CHURCH HAD PREPARED A SUPPER, WHICH WAS SERVED AFTER THE BUSINESS MEETING.

REV. E. M. HILL'S HAPPENINGS IN EMERYVILLE.

TALKS TO YOUNG PEOPLE ON THE PROBLEMS OF LIFE.

GOLDEN GATE, April 11.—There was a big crowd at the ball game yesterday morning.

The choir of the Golden Gate Baptist Church repeated its Easter song yesterday before a large audience of appreciative listeners.

THE REV. E. M. HILL TALKED TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH in a most impressive manner. He dwelt upon the theme of right living and the influence of early habits upon a future life. His lectures have attracted many and his method of dealing with the problems of life are being much enjoyed.

THE ENTIRE NEWS WHIST CLUB DANCE at Klinker Hall, held Saturday night, was a most interesting and enjoyable event. There was a large attendance.

THE WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT are intending to make their organization a grand success. Thirty members are already recorded and the outlook for the future of the order is grand. The society is in conjunction with the Woodmen of the World.

BOOBY AND ST. MARY'S baseball teams meet today on the diamond. No one seems to know what is the reason for the delay of erecting the gates at the crossing. Nothing has been done.

This is the last week of baseball on the local grounds. Next week the games will be held at Alora Park.

ELECTIONS TODAY WITH LITTLE CONTEST FOR TOWN CLERKSHIP.

EMERYVILLE, April 11.—Elections are being held today.

The Board of Trustees will meet tonight.

A second coat of paint is being put on the new Meyborn building on San Pablo avenue.

There was a large attendance at the track Saturday.

Tomorrow night the Foresters will meet. There will be a consideration of the grand farewell banquet to the departing members of the lodge brought up. The affair will be held April 16th at Thompson's restaurant at the race track.

The first train running into the town at the new Santa Fe station may come before May 25, this date having been announced as the day. The rapid completion of the depot may possibly enable the town to be benefited by the arrival of the first train in two weeks. The tracks are being laid on both sides of the avenue and work is being rushed along as fast as possible with the hope of improvements at the corner may not be finished when the first train comes in they will probably be done in a few weeks.

An ordinance limiting the height of sign boards to ten feet has been decided upon.

A large delegation from this town attended the ball game yesterday morning at Golden Gate and rooted for Oakland.

Several carloads of horses from the south arrived yesterday.

"Bad Sam" Davis, the negro who shot Washington, another colored man some time ago, is being sought by the police. There is a chance that he may soon be taken into custody.

The filling in on Hallick street and at the lower part of town is still being pushed along rapidly.

There is a report that Henry Burns may give up his hotel at the foot of Park avenue and leave for other fields. The building he now occupies may be torn down. This corner has long been the headquarters of horsemen for the town.

THE LARGEST ON PAPER.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Probably the largest check ever drawn as regards the amount of paper used, will be delivered to the Catholic University of America in Washington next Wednesday by the Knights of Columbus for the establishment of a chair of secular history. This check, beautifully engrossed, will measure eight by four feet. It will contain the names of all the council that contributed to the fund, will be drawn to the order of the Catholic University and signed by the officials of the Knights. Elaborate exercises will accompany the presentation.
